

MR. BRISKET WANTS YOU...

TO HELP US SEND SALAMIS TO THE TROOPS!

We feel that the holiday season would be a great time for all of us to show our support for the men and women of our Armed Forces.

One of our motivations is Cormac Chandler. The son of our customer, Max Chandler, Cormac serves as the Crew Chief aboard a Medivac Helicopter. Among his chief responsibilities is to evacuate wounded troops from battle situations.

When Max told us how much he'd like to send Cormac some of our fine meats, it got us thinking about what we could safely ship overseas. The obvious answer was salamis. It's delicious and doesn't spoil. Thus an idea was born to ship salamis to Cormac – and the rest of his unit in Kandahar, Afghanistan.

The first twenty are on us. The rest is up to you. Each of you is encouraged to send a salami as well. All salamis will be sent with a note of support and a supply of Cleveland's famous Stadium Mustard.

Our goal is to send at least one hundred salamis to Afghanistan on January 5, 2010. But to get to this number, we need your help. Please consider participating in our "SALAMIS TO THE TROOPS" Program. The cost is modest and all participants will receive a gift certificate from us for One Free Sandwich as our way of saying "Thanks."
